Concerts at Mahidol

The 16th show to be held at the Music Auditorium, College of Music, Mahidol University (Salaya), is a concert in the Thailand Philharmonic Orchestra's third season, and is a special performance for percussion and orchestra.

The programme starts with Percussion Night, performed by Tomer Yariv and Adi Morag, who together form PercaDU, or Percussion Duo, an Israeli percussion duo that has garnered worldwide interest and enthusiasm through their unique style of virtuoso, energetic and intense performance.

Next up will be Thai traditional music, then Overture from Michail Glinka's Ruslan and Lyudmila, and Avner Dorman's Spices, Perfumes, Toxins!, a concerto for percussion and orchestra. After an intermission, the programme will continue with Haydn's Symphony No. 104 in D major, the "London".

The concert is on Friday, at 7pm, and Saturday, at 4pm. Tickets are 500 and 300 baht (100 baht for students). For more information and reservations, call 02-800-2525 ext 125, email musicmahidolpr
